

LMU Department of Psychology • Project Team Adler

PsyCris

Psycho-social Support in Crisis Management

Psycho-social Support

Promoted by

- primary, secondary and tertiary prevention
- provision of adequate support
- help for victims, affected people, groups and rescue/emergency workers
- appropriate treatment of trauma- and stress-related disorders
- implementation of all the offered concrete action strategies and intervention methods
- Task psycho-social support is automatically generated by the disaster itself
- damage limitation, creation of psycho-social safety global functioning of individuals and society